COMMUNITY SPECIAL

All inspirational experiences in life should be shared. This book shares the lives of two noble souls who radiated the warmth of God's love on all around them. Here a devoted son, Shree Parshotam Lal Bhagat, fulfils the wish of his father, Shree Bhagat Hargovind Abbott, for the publication of his versified articles on Vedanta for the benefit of society. These articles were published periodically to enlighten readers with the pearls of wisdom held in the treasure chest of Vedanta.

Vedanta is one of the oldest religious philosophies known to man based on the time immemorial sacred scriptures of India known as the Vedas. It affirms the oneness of all existence and the divinity of the soul. The aim is for the seeker to personally experience their true nature through sincere efforts by following the four Yogas (jnana-yoga, karma-yoga, bhakti-yoga, and raja-yoga). All are qualified to directly receive this highest illumination.

The Vedanta philosophy was preached by many reformers including Swami Shankeracharya, Swami Ram Krishan Param Hans, Swami Vivekanand, Swami Ram Tirath, and Sadhu Nischal Das.

Think O man:

*Day by day the death is coming near,
Youth is declining and body wears.
The day that is gone never returns,
Almighty is swallowing everything.*

*The art is long but time is short.
Do your best to meet the call
Of time short. Cultivate, O man:
In you the excellent thought.*

Shree Bhagat Hargovind Abbott

*Ekam sad viprā bahudhā vadanti
"Truth is one, sages call it by various names"
Rig Veda*

The book Bhakti Gyan 'Vedanta and Shrimad Bhagavad Gita' by Bhagat Hargovind Abbott is now in print. Kindly pick up your copy from the Temple reception.

Community Special submission can be sent to the Mandir management by 25th of each month. We will endeavour to print in the newsletter FOC.

Tackling issues of grooming and entrapment

'Safeguarding children in our community'

'Grooming is the term used to describe the acts of distancing a vulnerable child away from their parents and family with the use of gifts and attention with the intent to sexually abuse them. So-called legal highs are also used by predators to hook young people on them before potentially using harder drugs.'

Seminar

Venue – Oshwal Mahajanwadi

1 Campbell Road, Croydon, Surrey, CR0 2SQ

Date: Sunday 15 February 2015

Registration – 4.30pm

Programme – 5.00pm to 7.00pm

Guest Speaker – Bhai Mohan Singh

of Sikh Awareness Society

Light refreshments will be provided after the programme

Please note this is an open event to all communities and pre-registration for the event is essential as spaces will be limited

The grooming and sexual exploitation of children by adults happens in every town and city across the country and is "not confined to Asian gangs in gritty northern towns," a charity said today. – Friday 2 January 2015 – The Independent

"We need to make our community aware that Hindu girls are being entrapped and groomed as are other girls from other communities. They are drawn into sexual relationships over time by individuals and gangs, ultimately leading to sexual abuse and entrapment. These girls are not able to escape and in some cases this may involve them being sold as sex slaves abroad"
